

CHR 8605: Lab in Counseling Skills

Introductory course in counseling focusing on such skills as attending, listening, perceiving, reflecting, summarizing, questioning, confronting, goal-setting and decision-making. Ethical and professional issues will also be discussed. Students will participate in experiential exercises and/or actual counseling sessions utilizing these skills.

Credits: 3.0

Program: Education and Counseling