

CHR 8675: Development of ELL Students

Course provides theoretical principals and practical knowledge essential for counselors to understand the development and education of the English Language Learner. Topics covered include: language acquisition process, relevant cultural factors, assessment, professionalism, and Legal and Ethical responsibilities.

Credits: 3.0

Program: Education and Counseling