

CHR 8873: Addiction Counseling

The Addiction Counseling course focuses on the effect the various substances have on the individual's physiological, sociological and psychological systems. Effective approaches for rehabilitating these negatively afflicted systems will be explored.

Credits: 3.0

Program: Education and Counseling