

COM 8100: The Communication Perspective

Grounds students in communication theory by introducing them to theoretical and ethical issues involved in strategic discourse. Tracing historical and contemporary issues in the development of communication study, the course examines meaning-making and its consequences in various contexts.

Credits: 3.0

Prerequisites:

COM 8008 :Y

Program: Communication