

EDU 8645: Contemporary Issues Higher Ed

Course critically examines the latest issues facing US higher education. This includes student learning, legislation, institutional policies, finances and resource allocation, technology, campus diversity, academic capitalism, and how current events impact the college environment.

Credits: 3.0

Program: Education and Counseling