

PSC 8190: American Party Politics

Organization and function of American political parties as contestants for political power and architects of public policy; political party realignment; parties and campaigns; the party in the electorate and the party in government.

Credits: 3.0

Program: Political Science