

PHI 8510: Political Philosophy

A survey of major political theories from works such as Plato's Republic, Machiavelli's The Prince, Hobbes' Leviathan, Rousseau's Discourses, Hegel's Philosophy of Right, and Rawls' Theory of Justice with some consideration of such contemporary post-Hegelian thinkers as Kojève and Fukuyama who maintain that political philosophy has come to an end.

Credits: 3.0

Prerequisites:

199730

Program: Philosophy