EDU 8676: Technology in Teaching

Examination of a variety of technological applications appropriate to elementary and secondary teaching. Emphasis is upon the use of computers, CD-ROMs, laser discs, the Internet, World Wide Web, Hypercard and multimedia with classroom instruction. Laboratory experiences with various technologies will be provided. Course will allow for differentiated learning experiences based upon previous technical skills.

Credits: 3.0
Program: Education and Counseling