

GEV 8330: Fields Methods for Env Sci

Applied introduction in field methods in the environmental sciences, including the following skills GPS, stream hydrology measurements, vegetation classification, meteorological measurements, soils, water quality, remote sensing, GIS, local environmental issues, and natural and cultural history.

Credits: 4.0

Program: Environmental Science