ECE 8234: Image Processing

Fundamentals of digital image processing covering both analytical and practical foundations of working with 2-D images. Topics: digital image acquisition and definitions, image transforms, enhancement, restoration, and segmentation; electronic imaging and color; image encoding, compression, and graphic file formats; morphological processing. Computer projects implement classroom techniques and modern software tools are discussed.
Credits: 3.0