EDU 7124: Digital Literacies

This one-credit course examines how digital technology is changing literacy and learning for K-12 students. Participants will study the ways in which digital tools shape and are shaped by sociocultural processes of learning and development.
Credits: 1.0
Program: Education and Counseling