

EDU 7250: Leadership Seminar I

Taken during the fall semester when matriculating, this seminar introduces students to school leadership practice. Emphasizes adult learning theory, reflection-on-practice, content-based decision-making, the formation of learning communities, and leadership ethics. Students begin organizing their professional portfolios.

Credits: 1.0

Program: Education and Counseling