

EDU 8697: Leadership Simulation

Taken after completion of the skills component, this seminar features a reality-based learning project to develop strategic problem-solving skills through computer simulation, interactive video, and other data resources. Students develop a one- and three-year strategic plan for presentation to a board of three practicing school superintendents.

Credits: 3.0

Program: Education and Counseling