

EGR 7012: Management for Engineers

Application of principles and tools of contemporary management focusing on the process of getting the job done effectively and efficiently: planning, organization, staffing, leadership, control and communication.

Credits: 3.0