

LAW 7030: International Business Trans

An introduction to various facets of international business transactions. Examples include the international sale of goods and forms of doing business abroad, such as distributorship and licensing agreements, joint ventures, and foreign direct investment; Exam Info: Exam administered during exam period.

Credits: 3.0