

LAW 7036: Labor Law I

This course examines, in depth, the legislative, administrative and judicial regulation of labor relations under the National Labor Relations Act, including the employees right to organize; the selection and designation of bargaining representatives; the collective bargaining process; the activities of unions and employers in labor disputes. Students will be expected to complete a final paper. Exam Info: No Exam
Credits: 3.0