

LAW 7080: Land Use Planning

A course in the regulation of land use. Topics include zoning, subdivision controls, planning methods, constitutional limits on land use regulation (takings, due process, first amendment), and a variety of critical issues, including ballot box zoning, historic preservation, and exclusionary zoning. Exam Info: Exam administered during exam period

Credits: 3.0