

LAW 7120: Strategic Legal Analysis

Restrictions: 3L ONLY COURSE This workshop-styled course is designed to provide students with the analytical, test-taking, writing and study skills that are critical to success on the bar exam and in the practice of law. The course consists primarily of a self-directed review of several major bar exam subjects and requires numerous writing and practice assignments, including answering both essay and multiple-choice (MBE) questions. Note: Registration information for this course will be emailed to students over the summer from the Registrar's Office. Deadline for waitlist registration differs from Add/Drop deadline; Date for approval TBD. Exam Info: No Exam

Credits: 2.0