

LAW 7180: Practice Law as Solo Small

The practice of law as a solo or in a small firm requires that you are both a professional and an entrepreneur. Learn how to marry the two in this course that begins with your decision to practice in this setting and covers many of the important decisions you will need to make before and after you open the doors, including infrastructure issues, marketing, business technology, and law practice economics.

Exam Info: No Exam

Credits: 2.0