

MAC 8315: Globalization Issues in Acctg.

Focuses on the impact of global issues on the accounting profession. Utilizing case studies, theory, and panel discussions from high-level professionals, accounting students learn how globalization affects the needs of clients and other stakeholders in relation to information systems, management, finance, and International Financial Reporting Standards.

Credits: 3.0