

MBA 8410: Applied Corporate Finance

Application of theories and concepts of financial management to practical business problems and situations by means of case analysis and problem-solving techniques. Topics include valuation, risk and return relationships, working capital management, capital budgeting analysis, risk management, capital structure, and dividend policy.

Credits: 3.0