

NUR 9408: Evidence-Based Practice

Focuses on the relationships among basic and applied research, translational science, and evidence-based practice in healthcare systems. Translational research strategies are identified and the theoretical and practical challenges of translating evidence into practice will be addressed.

Credits: 3.0